

Protection of personal data :

In accordance with the Regulation of the European Union on personal data protection (GDPR), we inform you that the personal data (Last name, first name and address e-mail as well as the functions in your company) are recorded in the Suppliers Database of the Groupe PSA. These data enable us to communicate with the supplier's employees in the context of your functions (they are accessible to all collaborators from the Groupe PSA), and give you the opportunity of an access to the tools and documents of the Groupe PSA through the B2B Portal. These data are exclusively reserved for professional exchanges, to the exclusion of any other use.

In accordance with the Groupe PSA's Code of Ethic (confidentiality of private data), these data could not be used with other completions than those laid down, in particular personal or commercial, and their processing is performed in compliance with the current laws in force and ensure data security and respect for individuals.

The registered members of your company in Suppliers Database of the Groupe PSA can constantly ask to know the contents of their personal information or to delete them/modify while contacting :

- the PLSA (Administrator of the access rights) of your company if your company required accesses with our Information systems,
- the team of assistance of the B2B Portal to the address contact-psa-b2b@mpsa.com, who commits himself performing the modifications within a period of shorter.